The Ideal Dance.

This evening at the Wheeling Park casino the Ideal Club will open the season of dancing at the park, and the indications are that the occasion will be an enjoyable one. The Opera House orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

Big Strawberries.

Joseph Underwood, who recently purchased the McCoy farm, on Caldwell's run, brought into the INTELLI-GENCER office yesterday a box of the largest strawberries ever grown in this vicinity. They were of the Jessie variety and as large as apples.

Transfers Recorded.

The following transfers of real estate were left for record at Clerk Hook's office yesterday:

May 19 by John A. Kithcart and wife to A. C. Fisher, for $2,900, part of lot 9 in the Eighth ward.

June 7 by Frederick A. Blum to William Edward Blum, for $7,000, lots 1 and 2 and part of lot 3 in square 23, in the Eighth ward.

Also a deed to August Fisher for a lot in Mt. Zion cemetery.

Eight Cases Yesterday.

In the police court yesterday Nanceon Tibbs, a plain drunk, was dismissed for his name's sake. William Stannard, a colored man accused of disorderly conduct, was also dismissed. Mattie Weaver, colored, paid $5 and costs for assault on a white woman. George Dixon and Joe Inzer, for fighting, got $1 and costs each, as did also Mike Cui, of Elm Grove, for drunkenness, while his partner, John Losco, went to the hill in default of the cash. John Burk was sent up as a common thief to await developments.

The Fairmont Convention.

The action of the B. & O. Ohio River and West Virginia & Pittsburgh railroad companies in making a rate for the convention of the league of Republican clubs at Fairmont next Tuesday of one fare for the round trip, ought to result in attracting the largest crowd ever seen at a similar gathering, as this is the most favorable rate ever offered. The companies do this largely as an experiment, and if it stimulates travel on this occasion as it should similar favors will be more easily obtained for future league conventions.

The County Convention.

The Republican county convention will meet June 30, in the new casino at Wheeling park, and be called to order at 3 p. m. The primaries will be held June 23 at the time and place named in the official call in another column.

Mrs. HANMER A. MAERLE, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for years a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health.

trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of course, to the national association. There was considerable discussion over the question, but all in a good natured way, and considerable applause greeted the passage of the resolution. The name of the consolidated association will be "The National Retail Protective Association of the United States of America."

BUTCHERS WELCOMED.

The convention at 5:30 adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

AT MOZART PARK.

The social features of the convention began last evening at Mozart Park, where gathered nearly 1,000 members and friends of the association.

A more delightful place could not have been selected, as cool breezes prevailed all evening that put all the visitors in a happy frame of mind to enjoy the excellent programme arranged, after the tiresome duties of the day in the convention hall.

The musical programme was entirely informal, being opened with a spirited march by the Opera House band, and followed by choruses by the Mozart Singing society at intervals.

During the evening Messrs. Will B.
Day and Charles Zulauf rendered several solos and duets that won warm applause.

J. W. Hart, the athlete, gave an exhibition of his wonderful muscular feats, that proved the attraction of the evening. The affair closed with a dance that was continued until a late hour. All the visitors were very enthusiastic over their entertainment by the local association.

President Ochsenbein, of the Wheeling association, is a fluent and eloquent speaker.

Julius Esslinger, of the Evansville, Ind., stock yards, appears lonesome.
He misses the fair one.

The representatives from Connecticut are a fine looking set of men, and intelligence beams on each face.

The New York boys are a cheerful and jolly set, and desire the greatest good for the greatest number.

President Elbert S. Adams, of the Connecticut Association, is a thorough business man and speaks direct to the point.

William M. Alkin, Jr., is one of the school commissioners of Evansville, Ind., and is under $300,000 bond. This shows the faith in him.

Charles Loefler, of Wheeling, is eloquent when excited, and he cannot sit quiet and hear any other association lauded over the one in Wheeling.

Many of the delegates have been "entered, passed and raised," while others have been "cautions and brave," and others have entered the retreat and seen the "venerable."

A communication was received from William Field, member of parliament and president of the butchers' association of Great Britain and Ireland, regretting inability to be present.

The Connecticut boys think they have the greatest association in the world, and don't hesitate to say so.
Strange as it may seem, some have the same opinion of the national association.

John M. Lotterle, of Louisville, Ky., likes to be on the contrary side, just for the fun of it, but takes defeat philosophically. John is a clever gentleman and a worthy member of the Kentucky legislature.

Delegates Heger and Fred Wolfman, of Kansas City, report the butchers of that city in sad lines. The packers have combined against them, and the cheapest beef they can buy, and poor at that, is 5½ cents per pound.

President Ochsenbein says in some foreign countries butchers are not allowed a place in church and not admitted to jury duty. It is probable either of these restrictions would not affect some Wheeling butchers.

Adolph Gardner, of Dallas, Texas, says butchers must fight the "big four" with their own weapons. He suggests that butchers build a big abbatoir at Dallas, in the cattle country, and thus supply themselves with meat. There is something in this.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME.

In accordance with a proclamation by the mayor business will be very generally suspended to-day in honor of the butchers. The exercises of the day will open early, the second ward market having been held yesterday evening instead of this morning, on this account.
Following is the day's programme:

Parade at 9 a. m. through the principal streets of the city to the new fair grounds, where the picnic and barbecue, and the best dressing exhibition will be given, after which racing as follows:

First—A trotting race, one mile heats, three in five. Second—A pole race, one mile heats, three in five. Third—A half mile running race, three in five.

There will be dancing and amusements of all kinds, and refreshments will be furnished on the grounds.

Music for parade, concert and dancing by the Opera House, Meisler's and Mayer's brass bands.

If the hair is falling out, or turning gray, requiring a stimulant with nourishing and coloring food, Hall's Vegetable Serrilian Hair Renewer is just the specific.

Exercises of the Cathedral schools will take place on Thursday evening, June 14, 7:30 p. m., in Convent Music Hall. Admission, 25 cents.
